PART B

1. Activities reflecting the goals and objectives of the institution.

Prelude: Sheelam Sarwasya Bhushanam - Character is everything, is the motto enshrined in the emblem of the college. The college has been named after Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa, the first commander of armed forces and a man endowed with far stretching discipline, deep sense of purpose, forthrightness, and patriotism. He had been a living example of “Strength of Character”. The college exhorts its students to strive towards imbibing the character, ideals and moral rectitude, which the Field Marshal had stood for.

Goals and objectives

- i. To emerge as a premier institution of higher education by the way of providing opportunities to students towards academic empowerment for gainful livelihood.
- ii. To upgrade infrastructure continuously for a better higher education system.
- iii. To evolve new teaching and training methodologies with a fair mix of conventional and modern techniques.
- iv. To develop better sports infrastructure facilities.
- v. To provide training in IT to all the students to give them competitive edge.
- vi. To produce value added, quality graduates in all disciplines.
- vii. To identify and encourage innate talent among students.
- viii. To motivate the average performers to do better.
- ix. To promote value based education.
- x. To counsel and guide students in the career, academic matters.
- xi. Strengthening of extension activities of NSS and NCC.

Some of the important activities directed at achieving the goals and objectives are:

a) Initiative towards faculty development

The college deputed the teaching staff to participate in seminars/conferences/workshops and also for attending career advancement programmes.

b) Establishment of Career Guidance cell

Career Guidance Cell was established during 2004-05 in our college with a view to provide information and training on career matters. Mr. Thippeswamy E, Dept. of Economics, has been nominated as Co-ordinator.

The Career Guidance Cell utilizes the expertise and resources available at Employment Exchange, Madikeri and University Employment & Career Guidance Bureau of Mangalore University.

c) Publication of News Letter

The college has been bringing out Half-Yearly Newsletter highlighting the achievements of the college. This provides a means to reaffirm its commitment to the goals, objectives and vision. It is also aimed at creating awareness among the general public regarding various programmes and activities of the college.

d) Study centers of Distance education

The college has supported the establishment of the study centers of Mangalore University Distance Education and Karnataka State Open University (KSOU). The college has thus facilitated those aspirants who were deprived of higher education through conventional channels.

e) Establishment of QAC and IQAC

The quality Advisory Committee has been constituted to facilitate and to monitor the implementation of various development activities in the college. The Internal Quality Assurance cell has been constituted to ensure continuous improvement in the entire operations of the college
